CALL FOR PAPERS

In response to the current global threats to world heritage that call for urgency in developing comprehensive heritage protection strategies, the National and University Library in Zagreb is organising the international conference “Solidarity in culture: Heritage protection under conditions of crisis”, in Zagreb, from 18 to 20 March 2021.

The organizers have recognized the synergetic benefits of the solidarity networks of cultural institutions, yielding the most effective and immediate results in prevention, response and recovery efforts in culture, adding towards the existing general emergency services support.

The aims of the conference are to facilitate understanding and dialogue about new approaches to integrated conservation and risk management based on solidarity and cooperation between diverse partners that provide potential for resilience-building to disasters.

PROGRAMME

The conference programme is expected to bring together academics, students, scholars, scientists, engineers, practitioners, authorities, non-state actors and professionals in the field of cultural heritage conservation, as well as those specialising in safety policies and civil protection management.

The conference participants will have the opportunity to present new perspectives on the work in the cultural heritage sector, research results and their specific insights and experiences in the context of heritage management in times of crisis. The mix of presentations, workshops, panels, plenaries, breakouts and an exhibition of conservation projects is designed to inspire audience participation and collaboration.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of the conference is to explore and consider novel approaches in the field of heritage protection in disaster and emergencies, as well as to highlight the significance of a carefully thought out, integrated and inclusive approach to the protection of cultural heritage. The conference will also provide a platform for wider professional debate on various aspects of intra- and inter-sectoral cooperation and promote the spirit of cooperation and solidarity between cultural institutions.

TOPICS

The suggested topics include but are not limited to:

- concepts of heritage protection from the perspective of safety policies
- interoperability and cooperation between the cultural and civil protection sectors
- institutional solidarity in the cultural sector
- volunteering management and capacity building in heritage protection facing disasters
- contribution of education, science and technology to strengthening resilience of cultural heritage at risk of disasters
- cultural institutions' initiatives and innovations in cultural heritage management during crisis or disasters
- systems and methods for the protection and augmentation of library, museum and archival resources during emergencies
- heritage conservation in post-disaster situation
- prevention of theft and illicit trafficking of cultural heritage during crisis or disaster
- leadership in times of crises
- contribution that cultural institutions may make to the implementation of the UN 2030 Agenda and its sustainable development goals
- disaster risks and post-disaster assessments
- the integration of cultural heritage into national disaster risk reduction strategies
